IT WAS DANGEROUS.

Excavation Used Weakened the Auburn City Railway Company's Building. Work on the enlargement of the power house of the Auburn City Railway company was unexpectedly stopped this morning. The ground at the southeast end of the building had been excavated for the new engine which is soon to be put in. In this work part of the building has been torn down and the remaining part left weaker than it otherwise would have been. The work was going on as usual when about 10 o'clock it was noticed that the building was beginning to crack, the crack running across the entire side of the structure. This was caused by the East side of the excavating. The crack came gradually or otherwise some injury might have been done, as one of the guy wires supporting the big smoke stack was attached to the end of the building which dropped down. As it was the huge pipe moved about rather dangerously and some of the workmen quickly got back from the building to a place of safety in case the stack should fall. One of the workmen, whose forefathers lived in sunny Italy, quickly grabbed his coat and hat and scurried into the depot remarking, as he ran: "No stay. Too much kila."

As soon as possible the weak part of the building was strengthened with heavy timbers and the sinking was stopped and the men continued the work. Later one part of the corner of the building came down and was torn down and the danger of bricks falling on anyone was averted. The engines were not stopped and the cars were not delayed by the accident.

VETERANS SEEK EXEMPTION.

The assessors are about through with their hearing to taxpayers and they have had the usual hard time of it. This year, there is a feature of the hearing which has not been noticed at previous hearings. Positions of the government, veterans of the Civil war and their widows want to avail themselves of the law which says that property purchased exclusively with pension money shall be exempt from taxation and to that end are ready to swear that their properties were purchased exclusively by cash received from Uncle Sam for pensions. The assessors told all such people to call at the Common Council chamber this afternoon about 3 o'clock and they would be heard. In response to the invitation there were many taxpayers on hand this afternoon.

FUNERAL OF HENRY DALY.

The funeral of the late Henry Daly took place from the family home, No. 734 Van Anden street at 9 o'clock this morning. The house was crowded with relatives and sympathizing friends of the deceased. The services took place at the Holy Family church at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Hickey read a requiem high mass and conducted the usual Catholic burial service. There were many floral offerings from the associates of the deceased and an appropriate floral offering and attended the funeral in a body. The remains were borne to their last resting place in St. Joseph cemetery by John McNamara, William Kean, James Stapleton, Charles Nolan, Jeremiah Stapleton and Daniel McCarthy.

THE SHAW OBSEQUIES.

The funeral of Elizabeth, wife of Lawrence Shaw, was held from her late home, No. 76 Fifth avenue this morning at 9, with services at St. Mary's church at 9:30 and was largely attended by relatives and sympathizing friends. Rev. John Quinn officiated at the church. The floral pieces were many and beautiful. Mrs. Shaw was an estimable woman whose loving disposition and kindness of heart won for her the esteem of all who knew her. She leaves, besides a husband, one child who will have the sympathy of the community. The remains were laid to rest in St. Joseph's cemetery. The bearers were William Lukeman, Cornelius Mahany, Patrick Keiley, Michael McCarthy, Arthur Morgan and Michael Mahany.

BILLY MALANIFF AGAIN.

William Malaniff, the old offender, has been out of jail for a short time only. He went right at his old tricks once more and got drunk. His mother swore out a warrant for his arrest and this morning he was before Recorder Clark. He pleaded guilty and was sent to jail for 40 days without the option of a fine.

TO-DAY'S FIRE.

An alarm of fire from box 13 took the fire department down on North Division street shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. The fire was in the upper part of the house No. 65, owned by Kate Kirwan and occupied by C. B. Clark and family. The fire, it is thought, started from a tinsmith's lamp, as a man had been at work on the roof this morning and the fire was confined to the upper portion of the house. It was extinguished with but slight trouble. The damage is about $50.

IN AN ICE CHEST.

Catherine Gling's Niece Unlashed by a Irate Chicago Grocer. A Chicago dispatch under date of Thursday says: "Mrs. M. A. Ireland, a widow living in the Vendome flats, 670rd avenue and Madison street, and a sister of Catherine Gling, who was murdered by Harry Hayward, swore out a warrant to-day for the arrest of William Tassie, a grocer, at No. 533 West Madison street. "Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Ireland's daughter, Clara, aged 18, went into Cassie's store to exchange a pound of coffee, which was burnt and bitter. Cassie denied that the coffee had been bought of him, when the girl threw the package at his head. "Thereupon Tassie grasped Miss Ireland by the shoulders and hustled her into an ice chest. When a crowd gathered in front of the store he released her. "The girl, who was almost hysterical, left the store roaring vengeance. She returned later accompanied by her mother and some friends, a policeman arrived about the same time. Cassie demanded the arrest of the girl, and Mrs. Ireland insisted on Cassie's arrest, but the policeman told them both to get a warrant. This Mrs. Ireland did to-day and the story will be told in court. The girl's lip is out and her nose black and blue from the force with which Cassie slammed the chest door upon her."

ABOUT A CEMETERY.

How soon we are forgotten when we are dead! And there is not a better test of the truth of this than the condition of our Catholic cemetery. We are supposed to feel a certain reverence for the departed ones in which lie the remains of our fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters, sons and daughters, who died in the faith. We are ready to affirm this at any time. We would indignantly deny that we had grown indifferent to the dear friends who died a few years ago and left us but for the testimony of our State street cemetery. Be believed our dead lie unremembered and neglected in spite of the tender motto: "Requiescat in pace." Monuments and flowers and gilded railings do not make the dead rest more peacefully. On the resurrection day the monument, whether a dome of granite or a mound of earth, will be as naught and yet in common decency Catholics should see that the resting places of their dead are well cared for. But our State street cemetery is a forsaken pasture lot for all the care that is given to it. Oh, see the care that is taken of St. Joseph's. Can any Catholic stand above the bodies of his departed brothers who died fortified by the sacraments and not feel the holiness of the spot in those mounds overrun by the tangled grass and broken slabs and dead leaves of bygone Autumns where lie that glorious army of saints who will arise at the time comes and who raised $3 that ago $1,000 for a burying ground? Oh, what a sight to see our cemetery here and the fury and bustle of the world kill all the tenderness which faith generates in Catholic hearts and when individual selfishness leads us to forget that we are brothers!

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

Report of the Work of the Ministerial Board Submitted.—A Resolution. SARATOGA, N. Y., May 23.—The docket of the General Assembly contained two items when the session was opened this morning. They were the report of the Permanent Committee on the Work of the Board of Ministerial Relief and the further consideration of the report on the management of church temporalities. There was, however, a possibility in the way of special reports and unfinished business. Routine business occupied the first half hour and at 10 o'clock the report on ministerial relief was taken up. The report showed 735 beneficiaries under the board, an increase of 95 and a decrease through death of about 50. The receipts for the year showed a slight decrease, amounting $171,557. The expenses of the year were $196,731. The average amount granted to those under the care of the board was $210, with a maximum of $400. One of the principles of this board is that it avoids contracting any debts. It was recommended that the sum of $200,000 be contributed to the use of the relief board during the coming year. The assembly was then addressed by William C. Cattell, secretary, and by Dr. Villeroy D. Hoed, of Philadelphia, the first president of the board. The second order of the morning was the report of the Committee on Church Temporalities, in session at the financial management of the churches by boards of deacons. Elder McBurnie, of Cincinnati, addressed the assembly in opposition to the proposal of the committee, though advocating the principle that the property of the church should be safeguarded for the purposes for which it was given. His argument was long, legal and technical, but was heard with considerable attention. After a long discussion occupying the remainder of the forenoon session, the report of the Committee on Temporalities of the Church was referred back with instructions to define the duties of trustees and deacons and to prepare a model deed to be used in the acquisition of property for church uses. In an interval in this debate a telegram of greeting from the Southern Presbyterian Assembly, in session at Memphis, was read and the moderator and clerk were authorized to reply to the same and also to send a similar message to the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly at Birmingham, Ala. A resolution was introduced by Dr. Clark, of Buffalo, in regard to the plan for uniformity of worship advocated by the New York Evangelists, as follows: "Resolved, That a committee be appointed to report next year as to the varied forms of worship in use in different parts of our church in the United States and also as to the plans proposed to produce uniformity in the worship in the Presbyterian church. The matter was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. The morning session was extended till 1 o'clock p. m., when the Assembly adjourned until next Monday morning.

A HACK TEAM RUNS AWAY.

A team of horses hitched to a hack ran away at the lake to-day. The occupants of the carriage, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, of 9 Garraw street, had been to St. Joseph's cemetery attending a funeral. As they were coming out of the cemetery, the horses, feeling rather high spirited, began to prance about. At the same time the reins dropped down and one of the horses got one of them between his legs. The horses began to run. The driver hauled tight on the reins with the result that they broke. The horses ran a short distance and collided with a tree. The occupants were not thrown out but considerably shaken up. They were taken to the police house and afterward brought to their home in Garraw street. Dr. Gerin was called and they were given attention. It is feared that Mr. Shaw suffered a dislocated shoulder and that his wife was internally injured.
